REGISTRATION SECTION
the past several years it has been our privilege to be associated with several major Japanese commercial interests. Being well known in Japanese circles, it is understandable from time to time when additional local assistance is required that the Japanese Consulate General at San Francisco should call upon us. More specifically on the occasion of the visit earlier this year of Prime Minister E. Sato of Japan, we were asked by the Consulate General to assist in the related hospitality and press functions. Since we are being reimbursed by the Consul General for our actual out-of-pocket expenditures in connection with that event I considered it best for me to submit to you herewith an appropriate Exhibit C.

"Undoubtedly there will be future occasions when the Consulate General here will again ask for our assistance. Whatever monies are paid us as reimbursement for our expenditures will be reflected of course in our next supplementary report".
